

I want you to know that I am deeply opposed to ending the regulation broadband service. Deregulation will lead to the creation of a monopoly that will lead to higher prices and poor service. We need to keep as many service providers as possible and competition high. Allowing phone companies to overcharge for broadband pricing will eliminate the small provider.

Thank you for hearing me and please continue the regulatory review of broadband pricing to independent ISPs